"Despite several calls to the governor and his deputy, and other security apparatus, the government remained silent as the atrocities continued. The Fulani were able to carry out their deadly attack. They stayed for hours in the vicinity, moving at will, unchallenged." Why? Nigerian President Mu-

Erdogan Vows to Recapture all Lands Once Held by the Ottoman Empire, and More. Apparently Erdogan means, at the very least, the recapture of all the lands once held by the Ottoman Empire. That's not just Greece, but also Bulgaria, Romania, Yugoslavia, Algeria, Syria, Iraq, Israel, Egypt, Algeria, Tunisia, Morocco, and more. How seriously this can be taken is anybody's guess, but it shouldn't be dismissed out of hand. (jihadwatch.com 2/21)

Bible Good For Your Health

Go to Church and Live Longer! Multiple research studies now show that those who regularly attend church services are healthier and live longer. A 2017 study reported that regular church service attendance was linked

God's commands are exceeding beneficial both to our spiritual and our physical well being. Any wonder Paul admonished God's people to assemble together and exhort one another, love and care for one another? (Heb 10:24-25) to reductions in the body's stress responses and even in mortality, so much so that worshippers were 55% less likely to die during the follow-up period than people who didn't attend church. Those who are religious but who do not attend services regularly do not experience these benefits. (twnews&prophecy.com 3/2)

Our Security...Our Freedom

Oregon's 'School Exclusion Day' Bans Unvaccinated Kids From Schools. Today the public school district will ban children from attending their classes if they are not fully vaccinated. Vaccines aren't mandatory in Oregon, so why are they punishing unvaccinated children? Parents should have the freedom to choose what is injected into their children. Most exempted questioned vaccine safety. Flu Vaccine Bombshell: 630% more "aerosolized flu virus particles" are emitted by people who received flu shots. Flu vaccines actually spreads the flu. Reporter Links Psychotropic Drugs to Florida Shooter. Stephen Paddock, Omar Mateen, Gavin Long, Eric Harris, Dylan Klebold, James Holmes, and now, Nikolas Cruz all have one thing in common other than the mass murders they carried out. They were all reportedly taking prescription drugs which alter their state of mind and carry a host of negative side effects. Suicide, birth defects, heart problems, hostility, violence, aggression, hallucinations, self-harm, delusional thinking, homicidal ideation, and death are just a few of the side effects caused by the medication taken by the monsters named above, some of which are known as SSRIs (selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors), or antidepressants like Prozac. There have been 150 studies in 17 countries on antidepressant-induced side effects. There have been 134 drug regulatory agency warnings from 11 countries about the dangerous side effects of antidepressants. Despite this deadly list of potential reactions, their use has skyrocketed by 400% since 1988. Coincidentally, as antidepressants use went up, so did mass shootings.
