European Union News

Bulgaria Desperate to Join EU. Bulgaria, who's been a member of the EU since 2007, wants to move forward with its European integration and join the euro area as soon as possible. The Bulgarian Finance Ministry said, "We work actively to join the ERM II, which is the first step to proceed to a simultaneous membership of the banking union and the euro area." (Endtime.com 4/29)

Turkey's Erdogan Blames Greek Army for the Turkish Burning of Smyrna in 1922. In reality, the Turks burned the Christian quarters of Smyrna as part of their efforts to eradicate the Christian presence in Asia Minor. Now Erdogan, with the characteristic Islamic supremacist evasion of responsibility, blames the Greek army for this atrocity as he kicked off his general and presidential election campaign rally in the city on Saturday. (jihadwatch.com 5/2)

Greece "Overwhelmed" as Muslim Migrants Surge Across Turkish Border, Situation "on Verge of Spinning Out of Control". Greece is being "overwhelmed" by illegal migrants surging across its land border with Turkey, with a local mayor warning the situation is "on the verge of spinning out of control". Europeans should expect more crises due to the recklessness of European leaders that led to this new wave of illegal migration. (jihadwatch.com 5/2)

Turkey Tells EU to Criminalize Criticism of Islam. Analyst says plan should be 'warning' of looming danger.

Turkey, a member of NATO along with the United States, for years was regarded as a moderate Muslim nation with Western leanings. But it recently has taken a sharp turn toward full-blown Islamic law and persecution of non-Muslims. It just got worse, with a statement from a high government official that Turkey wants all governments across Europe to criminalize "Islamophobia," which would include any negative comment about the religion. ## Hawaii Earthquakes and Volcanic Eruptions Leilani Estates was one of the most at risk communities in the rift zone where 30 homes have been destroyed so far and 2,000 residents displaced. Fissure eruptions continued on May 6, two day after a magnitude-6.9 earthquake hit the area, the strongest on the island since 1975. The Hawaii Fire Department reported "extremely dangerous air quality conditions due to high levels of sulfur dioxide gas in the evacuation area and lava temperatures up to about 2,100 degrees Fahrenheit. Scientists forecast more eruptions and more earthquakes, perhaps for months to come.

The Good, the Bad, the Ridiculous

Something You Didn't Expect Happens When You Take Your Kids to Church.

There are spiritual values you hold dear that you want your children to embrace, values that will sustain them like they've sustained you. It turns out regular church attendance is doing something else for them that is very good and received the attention of Stanford University. Adolescents who are more committed to their faith do better academically than those who are not, getting significantly higher grade-point averages.

At issue: Parsonage Allowance – Taxable or Not?

Gaylor v Mnuchin is currently before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Brought by the Freedom From Religion Foundation (FFRF), the lawsuit challenges the clergy housing allowance which permits clergy to be paid partly through a housing allowance which is subtracted from taxable income. "Ever since the tax code was first created for incomes back in the early 1900s, from the very outset lawmakers understood that the power to tax is the power to destroy. So the Constitution does not allow the federal government to tax churches," says attorney Ken Klukowski of First Liberty Institution, which has filed a brief on behalf of 16 members of Congress.

When Christian Conservatives Are Compared to the 9/11 Terrorists.

To put things in perspective, when Barack Obama ran for president in 2008, he stated clearly that marriage was the union of one man and one woman. He knew he needed to do this to win the conservative, black vote. Today, you are branded a radical and a dangerous fanatic if you espouse that same view. Ten years ago,

Christianity in America

you would have laughed me to scorn if I told you Bruce Jenner would become Caitlyn Jenner and be named woman of the year; the federal government would punish schools that refused to open the girls' bathrooms to boys who identified as girls; "transphobic" would become a household word; drag queens would read stories to toddlers in libraries; professional counseling would be withheld by law from children and adults with unwanted same-sex attractions. California is poised now to make it illegal for anyone of any age to receive professional help for unwanted same-sex attraction or gender-confusion. That is the unvarnished, unembellished truth. And what happens when we draw attention to this outrageous California bill? We are attacked as maniacs and likened to the 9/11 terrorists.
